Overview

Dylan's practice focuses on business litigation, contract disputes, and general litigation.

Dylan earned his J.D from Boston College Law School, where he was heavily involved in oral advocacy competitions including Mock Trial and Moot Court and earned an award as the top oralist of the preliminary rounds for the Sixty-Fifth Annual Wendell F. Grimes Moot Court Competition. Dylan was a member of the 2026 Philip C. Jessup International Moot Court Competition team, advancing in the national round to the Round of 32 and receiving an award as one of the tournament's top 50 oral advocates. While earning his J.D., Dylan gained experience as a law clerk for two established Massachusetts law firms, a student attorney in the Boston College Legal Services Lab's Civil Rights Clinic, and as a legal intern in the Massachusetts Office of the Inspector General. Dylan also served as a summer law clerk for the Hon. Brian P. Stern of the Rhode Island Superior Court the summer before his 3L year, assisting on class action matters and cases appearing before the Court on its Business Calendar.

Dylan earned his Bachelor of Arts degree, graduating magna cum laude, from Boston College, majoring in Philosophy with dual concentrations in Law, Public Policy, and Economics & The Great Books, with a minor in English.
