Overview

Brie's practice focuses on general liability matters, transportation litigation, intellectual property litigation, and environmental law & toxic torts.

Before joining Hassett | Donnelly, Brie worked as an associate at an established Boston litigation firm, where she defended medical personnel and long-term care facilities in injury and wrongful death matters. She has experience evaluating complex litigation and working with medical and liability experts in high-exposure matters. Prior to working for a law firm, Brie previously served as a Judicial Intern with the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court and as a Judicial Law Clerk with the Massachusetts Land Court.

Brie earned her J.D. from New England Law | Boston, graduating magna cum laude in 2024. She received her B.A. in Economics and Psychology from Connecticut College, graduating cum laude in 2019.
