Overview

Corey's practice focuses on premises liability, municipal liability, transportation litigation, environmental law and toxic tort, and product liability. In addition, Corey has handled many high-profile matters including those involving claims of negligent security, emotional distress and assault, and construction losses.

Prior to joining Hassett | Donnelly, Corey worked as an associate for an established civil litigation firm in Boston, frequently handling asbestos claims. Corey is experienced in handling cases involving toxic tort litigation and high-exposure matters involving catastrophic injury and wrongful death.
